

Entertainment Schedule

10 am – Nick Trivelas on bouzouki and Megan Jensen singing (will be playing throughout the day)

11:00 am – Gold Star Family Member Diane Moore to say some words. Her dad was a MIA POW from Viet Nam War.

11:05 am - Gulf Coast Hellenic Dancers

11:30 am – Georgian Dance Ensemble from New York City

11:40 am – 12:00 noon – Victory Belles 1st performance

12 noon – Karen Henderson sings “God Bless America”
Gulf Coast Hellenic Dancers

12:30 pm – Ukrainian Dancers

12:40 – 1:00 pm Victory Belles 2nd performance

1:00 pm Georgian Dance Ensemble

1:30 pm Ukrainian Dancers

1:40 pm – 2:00 pm Victory Belles 3rd performance

2:00 pm – Russian Folk Dance from Swan Lake

2:15 pm – Gulf Coast Hellenic Dancers

2:30 pm – Georgian Dance Ensemble

3:00 pm – Ukrainian Dancers

3:15 pm – Russian Folk Dance from Swan Lake

3:30 pm – Gulf Coast Hellenic Dancers

3:45 pm – Georgian Dance Ensemble

4:00 pm - Ukrainian Dancers

4:30 pm – Gulf Coast Hellenic Dancers

Victory Belles will be doing 3 totally different performances with a Christmas Song in each performance. Christmas songs will include White Christmas made famous by Bing Crosby, Silent Night, and Jingle Bells.

Georgian Dance Ensemble will dance two different beautifully choreographed dances

Ukrainian Dancers will perform two different Ukrainian dances choreography by Russian Ballerina Oksana Kozhonova

Russian Dancer will be Oksana Kozhonova dancing Russian folk dance from Swan Lake

Gulf Coast Hellenic Dancers will be dancing different folk dances from the Greek Isles to include the Zorba dance

Nick Trivelas on the bouzouki from the "A Night in Athens" Band and Megan Jensen from the Greek "Aegans" Band will perform throughout the festival. This is Megan's first appearance on the coast