Reflections from Fr James Rousakis

How many activities are there in your life that do nothing but drain your energy? We are perhaps the busiest and most active people in the world. Have we ever stopped to ask ourselves what we are busy about? I think not! One can be busy about one thing to the neglect of another which is actually more important. To keep the vine from wasting all its on leaves and dead wood, the vinedresser prunes away the unnecessary branches. The vinedresser is the Lord, if we only let Him do His thing in our lives. During the spring time, if I don't prune my crape myrtles and fig tree, there will be no flowers or figs to enjoy. If our many activities as Orthodox Christians keep us from our vital source of contact with Christ, or if they absorb all the energy that should be channeled to more important things, then we need to prune them away. We must keep only those branches of our life-tree that bear fruit for God and man: "You must love God with all your heart and mind and your neighbor as yourself," are the words of Christ to us.

Summer activities should not and must not become our excuse for not attending Church! If we, in the thousands of hours we have to ourselves for summer recreation, cannot set an hour or two aside in order to refuel our spiritual life by going to Church, then we need more pruning that meets the eye. Before you become victims to your summer activities, or in-activities, please open your New Testament to the Gospel of St. Luke 14:16-24. When it comes to finding excuses, man has mastered the art. I extend to you an invitation to climb the spiritual mountain and to be at the Lord's banquet on Sunday. If you lose your footing during the climb, the Lord will be there to extend His helping hand so you will blossom in His name. Enjoy the summer!

Kyriake the Great Martyr, July 7 . . . Saint Kyriake was the daughter of Christian parents, Dorotheus and Eusebia. She was given her name because she was born on Sunday, the day of the Lord (in Greek, Kyriake). She contested in Nicomedia during the reign of Diocletian, in the year 300. After many bitter torments she was condemned to suffer beheading, but being granted time to pray first, she made her prayer and gave up her holy soul in peace.

The Great Martyr Panteleimon, July 27th . . . This Saint, who had Nicomedia as his homeland, was the son of Eustorgius and Eubula. His father was an idolater, but his mother was a Christian from her ancestors. It was through her that he was instructed in piety, and still later, he was catechized in the Faith of Christ by Saint Hermolaus (see July 26) and baptized by him. Being proficient in the physician's vocation, he practiced it in a philanthropic manner, healing every illness more by the grace of Christ than by medicines. Thus, although his parents had named him Pantoleon ("in all things a lion"), because of the compassion he showed for the souls and bodies of all, he was worthily renamed Panteleimon, meaning "all-merciful." On one occasion, when he restored the sight of a certain blind man by calling on the Divine Name, he enlightened also the eyes of this man's soul to the knowledge of the truth. This also became the cause for the martyrdom of him who had been blind, since when he was asked by whom and in what manner his eyes had been opened, in imitation of that blind man of the Gospel he confessed with boldness both who the physician was and the manner of his healing. For this he was put to death immediately. Panteleimon was arrested also, and having endured many wounds, he was finally beheaded in the year 305, during the reign of Maximian. Saint Panteleimon is one of the Holy Unmercenaries, and is held in special honor among them, even as Saint George is among the Martyrs.

Prioritize Sunday as the Anchor of Your Family's Week

The Divine Liturgy is the primary worship service in the life of the Orthodox Church. It is where the Body and Blood of Our Lord and Savior is offered for the forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Simply put, attending the Divine Liturgy as a family should be a priority. The Lord's Day isn't merely the day we go to church – it is the primary day we become the Church – the people of God. (By George Tsongranis)

STEWARDSHIP

Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church is grateful for every donation received throughout the year. Your pledge of support is a sign of your heartfelt participation in the life of our parish family and it plays a vital role enabling us to meet our financial responsibilities.

We pray that everybody who attends Holy Trinity and cares for its financial security will make a pledge for 2018. If you haven't received a pledge form you can download it from www.holytrinitybiloxi.org website, under Stewardship or pick up a hard copy either at the candle counter or from any Parish Council member. You need to make a pledge as soon as possible. Pledge forms will be available at church.
